

JAMIE YOUNG C^o

2025 LOOKBOOK

About Our Founders:

Raised in Los Angeles by an artist and entrepreneur, Jamie Young was drawn to design aesthetics from a young age. A unique home with an out-of-the box perspective molded the person she is today. Growing up in the heart of the entertainment industry during the 70's and 80's Jamie was surrounded by eccentric characters: professional writers, painters, athletes, actors, and creative business minded mentors—inspiration was around every corner.

Jamie attended Parsons School of Design in New York City. Her husband, David Jeter, also an artist, attended San Francisco College of Art focusing on painting and sculpture. Jamie's superpower has always been the ability to understand design and fashion in the home space and bring to market an elegant and bohemian perspective unique to her upbringing. David's deep knowledge of art and world history adds depth to design, coupled with a brilliant and fresh perspective that keeps product current.

With a love of connecting to communities near and far, they founded Jamie Young Company in 1997 to fill a void in the world of home furnishings. Using their love of art, architecture, and adventure they craft approachable, design-driven pieces inspired by global travels and the laid-back luxury of California living.

28 years later they continue to surround themselves with the best business partner, operations, customer service, sales and creative teams to continue to grow the Jamie Young Co.

Jamie Young Co. brings casual elegance and quite luxury to home design.

TABLE LAMPS

This breathtaking lamp's sculptural base is an abstract swoop that rises from the earth, embracing and obscuring its internal hardware.

The eye is drawn upward to a white linen drum shade floating serenely above it all. Formed of ricestone, a unique substance that combines natural quartz crystal with resin, the lamp has a dramatic look that enhances decors from contemporary to coastal.
